CROSSROADS

CULTURAL EXCURSIONS & LASTING APPEAL

Louisiana's heritage runs deep in this region. In fact, the Creole, French and Indian influence is so strong you can taste it. Eat the meat pies in Natchitoches and you'll enjoy the unique flavor. Those aren't the only pies to tempt your taste buds. Lea's Lunchroom in Lecompte serves up unforgettable pecan and coconut delicacies, among others. Looking for something more than food? Several plantations are still intact, including Frogmore, a cotton gin started in the 1800's that is still operating today. Don't forget to take in the great outdoors with a visit to Kisatchie National Forest.

GREATER NEW ORLEANS

MYSTICAL SPIRIT SWEET INDULGENCES

There's just "that little something extra" about everything you experience in the Crescent City region. What we call "lagniappe" in Louisiana. You'll notice it in everything from the food to the architecture. Take Mardi Gras World for example, where you can get up close and personal with the grandiose floats that roll down the streets during carnival season. There's more, much more, to this region than Mardi Gras. Take a haunted history tour and hear about the eerie accounts of the area's past. If that's not the type of thrill you seek, try a gospel brunch or join the procession of a second line and boogie in the streets.

6/17/16 review from YELP

"Out of all the ghost tours New Orleans offers, this is by far the best. The staff are very attentive to their audiences needs, making sure they feel completely safe yet immersed in the culture of the French Quarter. As a native New Englander, I have high standards for ghost tours, and our tour guide was top notch. She knew how to make our tour into a memorable performance! My family and I left genuinely spooked, which is difficult to do. French Quarter Phantoms is a royal feast for anyone who has a taste for the darker side of history."
